About Us

Established in the year 2001, Veenus Engineerings has carved a niche in the realm of manufacturing, supplying and wholesaling an exquisite gamut of Candles and Agarbattis. Our Product Line, which includes Automatic Agarbatti Making Machine, Candle Moulds and Paper Plates, is being utilised to decorate various homes and restaurants across the country. While adhering to strict industry guidelines, we utilise cutting-edge tools and latest machinery to manufacture our products, which are renowned for their elegant designs, accurate dimensions, tensile strengths, beautiful colours and patterns. Our offered products can be customised in various colours and designs, per the specifications of clients. Having served our clients with distinction for close to 15 years, we have amassed a vast clientele. Our offered products are made with Grade A raw material procured from trustworthy vendors.

Based out of Bengaluru, our solid groundwork and foundation has helped us attain enormous success. As manufacturers, we are a technology-driven firm, which utilises latest tools and machinery to fabricate the products. Each of our products are thoroughly checked by our quality control unit over a series of parameters. We are constantly upgrading our machinery and processes to stay on par with top global standards.

Boasting of a vast clientele, we have reached an enviable position in the market. This success is thanks to the leadership of our Proprietor, Mr. Ravi K. Owing to his expertise, we have sustained ourselves as an eminent organisation through cut-throat competition.
